

Harriman Requests Authority To Boss Steel Allocations

Secretary Also Urges Ex- ports Lid To Help For- eign Aid Program

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—President Truman's domestic anti-inflation program centered congressional interest today with two cabinet officers telling committees the government should have power to say what use is made of the nation's steel output and grain crops.

Secretary of Commerce Harriman and Secretary of Agriculture Anderson testified before separate committees that such powers are necessary because of the proposed foreign aid program on which the senate expected to vote before nightfall.

Although the senate was expected to pass the $597,000,000 measure to help France, Italy and Austria about as Truman asked it, the emergency legislation apparently was headed for possibly two fights before it finally gets congressional approval.

Harriman and Anderson both supported Truman's request for authority to restore price-wage controls and rationing if he decides they are needed.

Would Allocate Steel

Harriman told the senate-house economic committee there should be limited powers to allocate steel to the "most essential programs." Allocation would permit the government to say how much of any particular commodity is used for a certain purpose, such as how much steel could go to the automobile industry.

Anderson made a similar plea to the house banking committee with regard to allocations in the farm and crop field. He said such powers are needed to be prepared for any serious emergency that may arise, such as failure of grain crops.

The agriculture secretary said emergency powers should provide for controlling exports, limiting inventories and directing use of grain domestically, and also should be set up to cover farm machinery and fertilizer.

House Group Cuts Fund

On the matter of emergency foreign aid, a majority of the house foreign affairs committee felt differently from the senate which apparently was ready to pass the bill authorizing the $597,000,000.

By a 10-9 vote, the house group approved a bill yesterday cutting relief for the three European countries by $108,000,000, but adding $60,000,000 to help China.

Congressmen of both parties said the close committee vote means there will be a hot fight when the measure is debated by the full house.

What remains of the anti-inflation part of Truman's program after two important sections are dropped seemed due for smoother sailing.

King George and Hope Swap Quips

London, Nov. 26.—(AP)—King George VI watched speculatively last night while comedian Bob Hope ran through the pages of an autograph book which was Hollywood's wedding gift to Princess Elizabeth.

"He's looking for his own picture," the monarch quipped. The king traded wisecracks with the British-born American comedian at the royal command performance of "The Bishop's Wife."

Their exchange—and the personalities in attendance—stole the spotlight from the film itself.

The picture, exempt from the new 75 per cent British tax on American films because it was shown for the benefit of the cinematograph trade benevolent fund, raised £25,000 ($100,000) or more from the 2,000 persons who paid up to $219 for seats.

The press commented sparsely on the picture. Commentators were more interested in the fact that 17-year-old Princess Margaret appeared in public with young King Mihai of Romania for the first time at the performance, and in King George's exchange with Hope.

Hope handed the album of signed photographs to Princess Margaret, to be delivered to her elder sister. The king asked whether Bing Crosby's autograph was in it.

"Yes," Hope replied. "He put three crosses. You see, he can't write."

Among those featured in the stage show at the command performance were screen stars Robert Montgomery, Loretta Young, Alexis Smith and her husband, Craig Stevens, Carole Landis and David Niven. The theme was British-American fellowship.

19 Soviets Seized; Expelled Forcibly for Acts in France

Paris, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The ministry of the interior announced today the expulsion from France of 19 Russians for "interference in French affairs" during the current labor crisis, which erupted in new violence as police and strikers battled in the streets of Lyon.

The announcement identified the Russians as members of the "Soviet Patriotic Union" and said they included the president, the treasurer and two secretaries-general of the organization.

The 19 were taken by bus to an unstaffed frontier and put across the border, the ministry said.

In Lyon police used tear gas to break up a strikers' march on the prefecture after a mass labor rally called by the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGT).

National security police inspectors swooped down on the homes of the Russians Tuesday morning. The action came as the new government strove to end the spreading strikes in France.

Minister Makes Charges

Eugene Thomas, secretary of state for communications, said the Communists have "launched a violent offensive" to force Paris postal employees to strike. He said "Communist elements are using intimidation and menace and trying to create an atmosphere of terror."

The interior ministry said the four expelled officers of the Soviet Patriotic Union were President Katchva, Treasurer Krivochine and Secretaries General Dimitri Kobalev and Alexander Palevov. The announcement said most of the group formerly were White Russians who became Soviet citizens after France was liberated.

A Paris newspaper reported that inquiries at offices of the Patriotic Union elicited this reply: "Our president is away on a trip. We know nothing about any arrests."

Follows Raid on Camp

The order came a few days after police raided a Russian separatist camp outside Paris, seized a small quantity of arms and removed a woman and her three children.

"In Lyon, several persons were reported injured in fighting which broke out between police and the demonstrators. Witnesses estimated the number of strikers participating in the demonstration at approximately 20,000."

The trouble began when strikers attending the labor rally decided to march to the prefecture and present their grievances. They found approaches to the prefecture blocked by police barricades and attempted to charge police with Communist banners flying in the van, Lyon dispatches said.

The strikers retired when tear gas, but a second melee broke out 20 minutes later when a score of policemen going off duty tried to march through the center of the demonstrators.

Several policemen were reported beaten in this struggle.

Denver, Nov. 26.—(AP) A bird in the hand may be worth two in the bush to most hunters, but J. E. Isenhardt of Denver managed to get all three with one shot while pheasant hunting. Isenhardt reported to state game and fish officials that while hunting near Fort Collins, Colo., he flushed one bird and shot it. His dog, going to retrieve the bird, surprised a second bird and caught it. A third bird, startled by the proceedings, flew up nearby and broke its neck against a farm building.

Truman Asks that Thanksgiving Be Tempered with Humility, Sympathy

Washington, AP.—The text of President Truman's Thanksgiving Day proclamation follows:

Older than our nation itself is the hallowed custom of resting from our labors for one day at harvest time and of dedicating that day to expressions of gratitude to Almighty God for the many blessings which He has reaped upon us. Now, as the cycle of the year nears completion, it is fitting that we should lift up our hearts again in special prayers.

May our Thanksgiving this year be tempered by humility, by sympathy for those who lack abundance, and by compassion for those in want. As we express appreciation in prayer for our munificent gifts, may we remember that it is more blessed to give than to receive; and may we manifest our generosity of that precept by generously sharing our bounty with needy people of other nations.

Now, therefore, I, Harry G. Truman, president of the United States of America, invite the attention of all citizens to the joint resolution of congress approved Dec. 26, 1941, which designates the fourth Thursday in November of each year as Thanksgiving Day: I proclaim Thursday, Nov. 27, 1947, as a day of national thanksgiving; and I call upon the people of the United States of America to devote that day to thoughts of gratitude, acts of devotion, and a firm resolve to assist in the efforts being made by religious groups and other bodies to aid the undernourished, the sick, the aged, and all sufferers in war-devastated lands.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 10th day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-second.

Harry S. Truman.

Secretary of State.

City Going in Red; Requests Portion of Illinois' Tax Funds

New Revenue Sources Needed To Keep the City in Black

The city council last night approved a resolution asking Gov. Dwight Green to call a special session of the legislature to pass legislation permitting cities to take a percentage of sales, public utilities, tobacco and liquor taxes after hearing a report by Mayor J. Fred Hofmann that the city will go deeply in the red soon if new sources of revenue are not found.

The resolution, adopted unanimously, asks the governor to call a special session Jan. 2 to consider the problem. Hofmann said other cities were taking similar action.

Before voting on the resolution, Hofmann told the council that a thorough and comprehensive study of the local finances showed that:

Funds Running Out

a) Almost every special purpose fund of the city is being rapidly exhausted and can operate only a curtailed program. The general fund, he said, "is faced with a probable deficit, although I intend to take necessary steps to prohibit it, for the fiscal year ending April 15, 1948, and an additional deficit in the 1948-49 fiscal year, if new sources of revenue are not immediately developed."

b) A greatly increased and constantly growing demand and need for municipal services, many of which are used by non-residents who do not share the tax burden, will continue to go unheeded in Dixon unless financial aid is secured.

Legislators said only other alternative seemed to be imposing higher taxes on the people, but that would not answer the problem fairly.

He said he will ask Representative Hubert Condit, Harmon, Lyle M. Prescott, Dixon, and George S. Brydia, Prophetstown, of this district, to sign the council's resolution.

"Evidence in support of the need for immediate relief in the form of new and adequate sources of revenue is overwhelming," Hofmann declared. "If the city fails to receive the necessary revenue to provide essential services of officials will be faced with an obvious situation. We will be compelled to deprive the municipality of some services, to impose drastic curbs on others, and to acknowledge inability of the city to properly meet new demands resulting from the progressive growth of the community."

Lists Major Factors

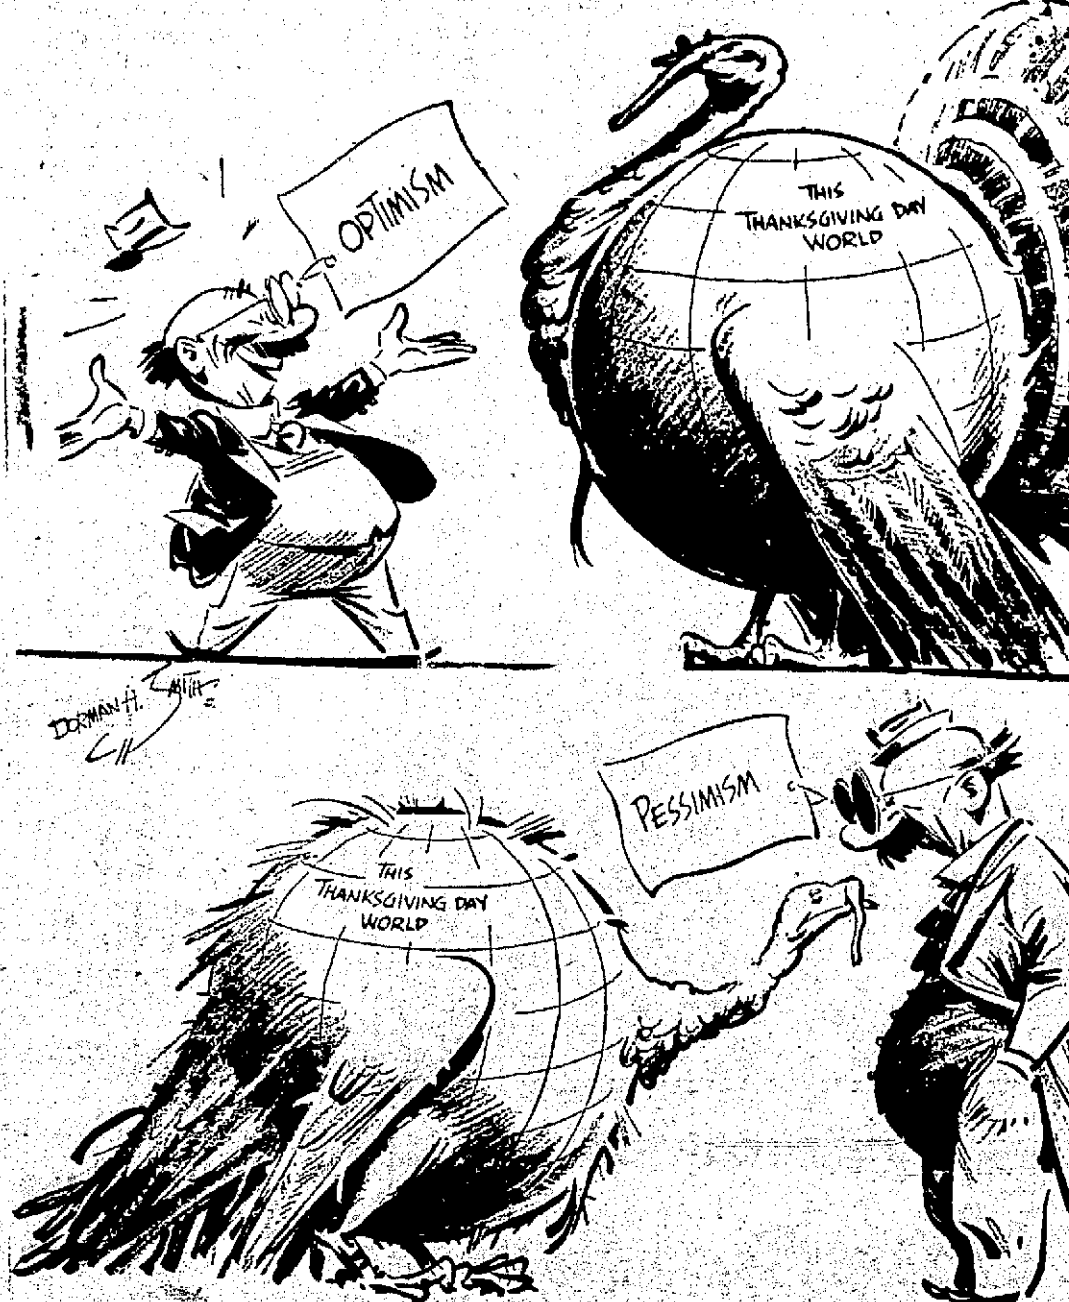

He listed the following factors as particularly aggravating the situation:

Blackhawk Statue Is Under Flood Lights

State Park Supervisor Louis Gramp of Dixon today announced that the flood lighting system has been installed at the base of the Blackhawk statue in Lowden Memorial park north of Oregon. For many years a movement has been afoot among Oregon business and professional men to secure the flood lighting of the famous statue on the banks of Rock river.

Four 1,000-watt lights were turned on for the first time last evening to completely engulf the statue. The flood lighting system is to be turned on each evening at dusk and remain lighted until 11 o'clock. An automatic time clock which is later to be installed will control the lights.

Meaning of Strike of Union Printers in Chicago Audible

Six Big Dailies Tinker With New Methods and Meet Most Editions

Chicago, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Chicago's six big daily newspapers, confronted with a strike by printers, are tinkering with new ways of publishing a newspaper—and are meeting most editions.

Walk into any of the plants and the meaning of the strike insofar as the mechanics of putting out a newspaper are concerned, comes to you by ear.

The soft click-click of typewriter keys has replaced the heavy clanking of linotypes at the Tribune, The Sun, Journal of Commerce, Daily News, Herald-American and The Times.

Girl typists from the newspapers' business offices have replaced members of the striking local union (AFL).

The girls can't do the same job the printers did but they perform the same step—in a different way. Printers set type a column-width line at a time on a lead slug, thus the name of the machine they use—linotype.

Now, instead of going to the composing room to be set into type, the news stories and advertising material are given to the girl typists.

Truman Frees Jas. Curley, Democrat

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—President Truman today commuted the federal mail fraud sentence of Mayor James M. Curley of Boston, providing for his release today from the federal correctional institution at Danbury, Conn.

The commutation provides that Curley's sentence has been completed with the five months he has served of a six-to-18-months sentence on a mail fraud conviction.

Truman also commuted the sentence of Edward Wakefield Smith, a former member of the National Labor Relations Board, who was convicted on the same charge.

Smith had been sentenced to a term of from four months to one year and a day.

The commutations mean that both Curley and Smith will be released in time to spend Thanksgiving with their families.

Curley and Smith began their sentences last June 25. Curley would have been eligible for parole Dec. 26. Smith became eligible Oct. 25.

Ross said the chief medical officer of the Danbury institution had informed the department of justice that the 73-year-old Curley is suffering from an acute heart condition and has diabetes.

Foreign Aid Plans Delayed in House; Taber Group Snag

Committee Won't Work on Proposal Until Dec. 4, Report

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The administration's foreign aid program bumped into additional prospects of delay in the house today even as the senate pushed a $597,000,000 bill toward passage.

Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the house appropriations committee said today that the earliest he will be Dec. 4 at the earliest before his committee can even consider appropriating funds for emergency aid to France, Italy, and Austria.

Taber made the statement to reporters after a conference with President Truman on the $597,000,000 European relief program which the house foreign affairs committee yesterday reduced by $108,000,000. After that action, the foreign affairs committee tacked on $60,000,000 for China.

Flier Is Held for Theft of Airplane

Davenport, Ia., Nov. 26.—(AP)—A 27-year-old flier from St. Louis, who is charged with theft of an airplane in St. Louis and flying to Davenport over the weekend, is being held in Scott county jail today pending arraignment before U. S. Commissioner William Evans on a charge of violation of the Dyer act.

James L. Dalton, agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation office in Omaha, identified the flier as Marshall Emil Hirsch, a student flier at Lambert Field, St. Louis.

The airplane, a J-3 Piper Cub was recovered by FBI agents at Agonair Field, northeast of Davenport, where Hirsch landed Sunday after the trip from St. Louis.

Princeton Man Who Sued to Recover Alleged Gambling Losses Pays Fine

Ottawa, Ill., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Roy Wilhelm Tuesday dismissed a suit asking for $26,385 in treble gambling losses and fined the plaintiff, Edwin Haynes of Princeton, Ill., $100 for contempt of court.

The suits were filed by Haynes against Tom Cawley and William Cosgrove of LaSalle, H. R. Weaver, Mendola, and Frank Gregorich, Jr., of Peru, tavern operators.

Haynes said in the suit he was trying to collect alleged gambling losses of his former partner in a harness and shoe repair business, Roger Pierson. Haynes claimed Pierson had lost partnership money.

On Nov. 19 Haynes made a motion to have the case dismissed and charged that his attorney, Calhoun Phelps of Princeton, and Claude Bailey, Princeton cattle buyer, forced him into the suit so Bailey might collect $5,000 allegedly owed him by Pierson.

Phelps denied this and said Haynes asked to have the suit brought.

Judge Wilhelm said "there are so many conflicting statements in Haynes' testimony" that he was holding him in contempt of court. The judge added that he was "convinced a settlement of at least $400 and possibly more had been made which the county under the law pertaining to gambling suits was entitled to have" but that because of the fact that Haynes "is not very well fixed financially" he had decided to fine him $100 for contempt of court. Haynes said he would pay the fine.

Stolen Safe Bears Prints of Fingers Sheriff Indicates

Sheriff Gilbert P. Finch indicated this morning that finger print experts who went over the Howard Leffelman safe at the Lee county jail yesterday had found prints.

Finch said, however, that there were no other developments in the case.

He said he still did not know exactly how much was in the safe when it was taken from the farm home of the Leffelmans in May township Sunday afternoon and broken open on a nearby road. Neither the door to the safe nor any of the safe's contents have been found.

Insurance Uncertain

It was estimated yesterday that several thousand dollars worth of securities and approximately $5,000 in currency were thought to have been in the safe at the time. It was carried from the farm house between 3 p. m. and 5 p. m. Sunday while members of the Leffelman family were attending services at the Maytown church. A complete check of securities was reported underway yesterday.

Lucas To Tell Plans for Campaign Sunday

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) said after a conference with President Truman today he probably will issue a statement for Sunday newspapers disclosing whether he will run for governor of Illinois next year.

White House reports Lucas practically made up his mind on what to do but "could still go either way."

He said in Springfield, Ill., 10 days ago that he would seek the president's advice and make a decision by Dec. 1. He said he had that conference today, but would not disclose what the president said.

Lucas said that in view of many conferences he has had in Illinois with Democratic leaders, he preferred to issue a formal statement instead of making a speech.

Gather Witnesses for Jury Quiz of Meyers

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The Justice department began rounding up witnesses today for a grand jury investigating the affairs of retired Major Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

The 25 jurors took a recess until Monday after receiving the bulky record of a senate war investigating subcommittee which heard testimony that Meyers ran an aircraft parts factory while he was deputy chief of air force purchasing.

Commander Jensen said that as he was talking the Coast Guard was landing a party of men at the island where the vessel grounded. The weather was good and the seas calm, he said.

BEACHES, WOODS COMBED

Ketchikan, Alaska, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Beaches and wooded areas of rocky Hippa Island were combed by Coast Guard searching parties as darkness lifted today for possible survivors of the 51 crewmen aboard the ill-fated transport, Clarksdale Victory.

Capt. Niels Haugen, commanding officer of the Coast Guard base here, said a walkie-talkie report relayed from one part last night saying "search for survivors negative" remained unexplained, and that darkness had undoubtedly halted their efforts.

Two Coast Guard planes, one flown by Lt. Cmdr. Oscar Weed, the base's air detachment, commanding officer, sighted what appeared to be three survivors from the battered ship early in the day yesterday, and dropped "medical and other supplies." Only the bow section of the battered 10,850-ton

Ask Court to Rule on Will's Meaning

Judge George C. Dixon has been asked, in a bill filed in Lee county Circuit court yesterday, to construe the will of the late Nancy L. Self, who died Feb. 22, 1932, to determine what heirs are entitled to a house and lot at 1009 Highland avenue.

The bill was filed by Mrs. Mary R. Emmert, administratrix of the estate, who contends that she is entitled to the property because she is the sole survivor of Mrs. Self's three daughters. Heirs of the other daughters, the late Frances B. Merriman and Hazel L. Emmert, claim that the will provides for equal one-third interests in the property.

Named in Action

Named in the action are Clinton C. Emmert, Betty M. Woodyard, John Woodyard, Edward Merriman, Nancy Merriman, Frank Merriman and Richard Merriman.

The will, dated Sept. 24, 1915, was admitted to probate in Lee county court last May 13, and the administratrix has filed a petition in County court to sell the property to pay costs of administration and taxes.

The bill states that the property's present value is approximately $5,000. Attorney E. S. Wadsworth represents the plaintiff in the action.

French Situation Grave; De Gaulle Stature Growing

Authorities Anxious and Wary of Nation-Wide Strike Results

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
This is no time to rock the boat, but we should recognize that the situation in strike-ridden France is increasingly grave.

I am reliably informed that the French authorities, both governmental and military, are viewing with deepest anxiety the potentialities of the nation-wide strike involving a million workers belonging to Communist-dominated unions. Officials recognize that, as elder statesman Leon Blum warned last week, international communism has declared war on French democracy.

They are preparing for the worst, with the hope that it won't eventuate.

Troops Called Back
French military reserves have been called back to active duty and it is said that very shortly the army will be close to active war strength. These forces are scattered throughout the country. The new cabinet under Premier Robert Schuman has got into action with a promise of energetic measures. This assurance came as the strike movement spread over the country and threatened disaster to the already chaotic economy. Schuman's task was to win back those million strikers and at the same time try to prevent other workers from leaving their jobs.

DeGaulle Cancels Talk
There were few bright spots in the gloomy picture, but one ray of light came from a vastly important—though perhaps wholly unexpected—quarter. General Charles DeGaulle, leader of the powerful new right-wing People's Rally, cancelled a speech scheduled for Thursday to keep from embarrassing the government in its conflict with the Communist-dominated Confederation of Labor. The general is the pet hate of the Bolsheviks, having captured a majority of votes in the recent country-wide municipal elections on a violently anti-Communist platform.

That is a highly interesting development and supports the suggestion of this column yesterday that Premier Schuman had chosen to adopt a course further to the right, rather than try to maintain a hopeless middle of the road position between Communism on the one hand and DeGaulle's extreme rightists on the other. It is further significant that Schuman gave the portfolio of the ministry of economics to Rene Mayer who is an open supporter of DeGaulle.

DeGaulle Moving Up
The way things stand now, General DeGaulle bids fair to play an increasingly important part in the destiny of the country. Just as he was war-time leader of the "Free French," so now he may be headed for the ultimate leadership of the war against Communism in his country. His political opponents charge that he has dictatorial ambitions, but the way the vote swung in his direction in the recent elections would indicate that if the general public holds any such views, it still vastly prefers his leadership to Communism. That is natural, because France on the whole is anti-Communist. The great strike has the country tied in knots. Nine tenths of the railroads are out of commission. All the many harbors are idle. Most of the absolutely vital coal mines are without workers.

One of the grimmest aspects of the situation is the obviously necessary military precaution which is being taken. Several thousand mobile guardsmen are on duty in the usually smiling capital. And at Fontainebleau, south of Paris, reservists of the 1947 class have been assembled.

The whole situation is suggestive of the lull before a gathering storm.

Oldest copper mine in the U. S. is the Elizabeth mine, Vermont, discovered in 1793 and reopened in 1942.

The Past is Mirror of Countless Faces, Memories to Boyle

AP Writer Brings Back Memories of Years Gone By

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—The past is a mirror of many faces, and these coming back . . .

The old Arab guide at the Egyptian pyramids who said, "money is nothing, but a good name shines all the time like the full moon" . . .

The numbing terror of the first man I ever saw hanged, a cop-killer whose eyes reflected the hell he dropped to seconds later. The cautious relief my father showed when my mother let me quit taking piano lessons after three noisy months . . . the resignation of an overworked horse that fell in the street one day as I was going to school . . . He lay there and knew he would never get up again, and was too old and tired to care . . .

The puzzled look of our bulldog pup, poisoned by a neighbor, as death seeped up his useless limbs . . .

The expression of the druggist I worked for as a delivery boy the snowy night a man phoned up and asked him to send over a three-cent stamp, a two-cent newspaper—and change for a $5 bill . . .

The terror of a schoolmate caught stealing from another boy's locker . . .

The bland look of my first high school date when I nervously suggested we sit on a park bench for a moment on the way home and look at the moon . . . "What for?" she asked, and I couldn't give her an answer . . . The history professor who broke down and cried on Armistice day as he told us of things he had seen in France during the war that then wasn't yet known as "the first World war" . . . He was the first of many grown men I was to see in tears.

The sick loneliness of the boy in the assault boat nearing the Moroccan coast, just before he vomited . . . The cheerful way Gen. George S. And the day his own blue eyes overflowed with sorrow after a bomb killed his young aide in Tunisia . . .

The happy hysteria in every face when war ended, and each soldier thought of the heaven of home and felt no worry for the days that lay ahead . . . Peaceful days, he was sure, and happy days he hoped.

FPC Sets Allocation of Natural Gas Supply

Washington, Nov. 26—(AP)—Emergency regulations limited natural gas deliveries to wholesale customers of the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline system in Illinois and five other states when requirements are heaviest were adopted last night by Federal Power commission.

The order provides allocation of the supply "when curtailment of service becomes necessary" and fixes the amount each customer may receive during periods of peak demand.

The commission estimated peak demands of consumers depending upon Panhandle Eastern in whole or in part during the coming winter at 596,000,000 cubic feet a day at zero temperature.

The daily delivery capacity of the company was estimated at 425,000,000 cubic feet, with another 19,000,000 cubic feet available from the big inch pipelines. The order applies also to Panhandle Eastern customers in Kansas, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

Ralph Bellamy Sues to Divorce Ethel Smith

Gooding, Idaho, Nov. 25—Movie Actor Ralph Bellamy today was granted a divorce from his organist wife, Ethel Smith, in district court yesterday. He charged desertion.

Bellamy told the court his wife locked him out of their New York apartment Sept. 25, 1946, and had refused to live with him since that time, although he said he had sought numerous reconciliations. Judge D. H. Sutphen said Miss Smith had filed an answer in court denying the desertion charge.

Finland Cut Off From World by Big Strike

Helsinki, Finland, Nov. 26—(AP)—The Finnish government began new conferences with a committee of civil servants today in an effort to break a strike—for higher pay—which has stopped trains, closed schools, grounded planes, tied up ships and severed almost every connection between Finland and the outside world.

Forty thousand civil officials in every branch of government service, except police and defense, joined the work stoppage, which began at midnight despite a stern warning broadcast by Prime Minister Mauno Pekkala, who said the strikers were risking loss of their jobs.

Parliament earlier had offered the civil servants a general increase of 800 marks a month—about $6—but the strike committee refused to accept.

Thought for Today

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.
—Psalms 24:4.

Purity in person and in morals is true godliness.
—Hosea Ballou.

Thanks—for American Spirit

Thanksgiving Day has been celebrated so long out of gratitude for abundance that we Americans may be forgiven if we forget that the first Thanksgiving was celebrated out of gratitude for survival. But there must be many newcomers to this country, observing the holiday this year for the first time, who will experience emotions not unlike those of the colonists who sat down to that first meager Thanksgiving feast.

The original Thanksgiving Day was decreed in humble thanks for the first harvest in the new land. The harvest was a symbol of hope and security after a year of hunger and danger, of sickness and despair, in an inhospitable wilderness where only the hardiest survived.

The colonists of 1621 could not conceive of the great nation that they were founding, or of the ease and comfort of its present life. Yet they would understand the hunger and danger and sickness and despair that survive today in the midst of advanced civilization.

And the fortunate few who have been able to flee those miseries and escape to America must have an acute understanding of what the first Thanksgiving meant.

But that is not to say that we who are heirs of the Thanksgiving tradition are callous. The spirit of this holiday, the sense of gratitude for the privilege of sharing are never long absent from our national conscience.

Occasionally they may seem to be, when we quarrel over other systems and politicians, or when we hear talk about "let them take care of themselves." But the true spirit is more typically shown in such things as the Friendship Train, and in the many instances of unpunished, individual generosity with which Americans have responded to the need of the war-déstitute and disillusioned.

We should give sincere, devout thanks for the blessings that this day recalls. And the world's hungry may also give thanks that the true American spirit is not a snug and selfish enjoyment of those blessings. For all the lies and insult hurled at America today, they must know that they can count on us to help and share, as we have so many times before.

The heavy base stalks of broccoli are useless if they are peeled and cut in cubes. Treated this way they will cook in about the same time as the flowerets.

New York—A palace revolution is smoldering in the Teamsters union of the AFL, one of the great, autocratic kingdoms of the union movement. There are almost a million subjects. There is a treasury of seventeen million dollars, cash.

Strange as it may seem, Dave Beck, the most pushful aspirant for the throne of Dan Tobin, the old king, may invoke the Taft-Hartley law to promote his revolutionary ambitions, although he has damned this act as a slavery law. If Beck's political plan should succeed smoothly then a number of less prominent rival household princes and betons of outlying provinces certainly will take advantage of the Taft-Hartley act. They will invoke its protection to succeed from the big international union without reprisals.

My use of the royal metaphor is not an exaggeration. This union is, in the most practical effect, a monarchy and Tobin is the king. He has been president for 41 years. Emperor Franz Josef and Queen Victoria ruled longer but not many monarchs in history have matched Tobin's tenure. He is so precious, and in the kingly manner he acknowledges his preciosity, that during his reign the constitution was amended with a special section couched in the language of the royal courts, providing unlimited expense allowances for himself and his queen, and an unlimited retinue of secretaries and servants.

He may travel wherever he will, "for the purpose of making diplomatic contacts" and "preserving his health," accompanied by Mrs. Tobin and attended by the royal flunkies entirely at the expense of his subjects.

Tobin's self-appreciation is so great and so naive that he readily acknowledges that his successor would not be worthy of this luxurious keep. Therefore, the constitution provides that these royal conditions shall cease when his successor takes office.

That would not bother Beck. Once in power, he could make his own conditions. Beck is healthy, aggressive and a hard-washing courtier in the presence of the old king. He is tough nevertheless. In the term of the Roosevelt era he has risen from a position of local, uncertain power in Seattle to the mighty role of commercial and industrial dictator of the northwest. There he rules as Tobin's satrap, hiding his time. He sent Mon Wallgren to the United States senate and made him governor of Washington. Wallgren will be presented to the 1948 Democratic convention as a nominee for the vice-presidency as a "labor" man. Beck will be his sponsor. By that time, Beck probably will have moved in as the executive vice-president of the international union under a constitutional amendment which Beck, himself, put through the national convention in San Francisco last August.

Beck saw it through the committee and heard the old king, from his throne on the platform, steam-roll the opposition.

The constitution requires that amendments thereto shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present. Tobin ran through several amendments by the "aye" and "nay" process. The opposition was helpless. In voting on one amendment, Joseph Casey and Anthony Cancilla, of San Francisco, and Martin Lacey, of New York, fought hard to defeat a proposal to increase the arbitrary powers of the old man and his executive junta. A vocal vote was challenged by Cancilla. Tobin, with a show of patience, asked for a count of hands. When the hands were raised, Tobin asked: "Does anybody wish me to count?"

"I do," Casey yelled from the floor.

"Hearing none," Tobin said, in a fairly representative expression of his mentality and ethics, "I rule the amendment passed."

Beck's ambition to take Tobin's place has been recognized by both his following and his opponents for several years. But last winter I smoked him out with a dispatch predicting that he would try by flattery to persuade Tobin to retire on an extravagant pension and arrange for his Beck's election or appointment through some trick, to succeed him. The ambition to become president is legitimate but you would have thought I had accused Beck of a felony. He said this innocent statement that he aspired to the presidency of his union was an evil slander, uncontaminated by truth.

This retort was published in the Washington Teamster, which carries Beck's name on the masthead, as president. But after all, it merely said Beck would not be a candidate unless Tobin, himself, should nominate him.

Speaking of himself, in his own paper, Beck said, "there is not a trace of the ingrate in Beck; he would not know how to double-cross; his word is never broken."

As a condition of their membership in the union, thousands of intelligent, self-respecting Americans are required to pay for such revolting garbage.

The premature revelation of his scheme forced Beck to change his plan slightly. A vain old bumbler, Tobin wanted the final compliment of a single term as president of the AFL. He was expected, in that case, to turn over all his duties and powers, except his final veto power, to Beck, and devote his year as president of the AFL to speeches about his own and great services to "labor." But political troubles intervened in the AFL and Tobin was thwarted. Therefore, Beck brought in the constitutional amendment creating the position of executive vice-president with plenary powers, subject only to Tobin's veto.

It is expected that Tobin will name Beck to the job on Dec. 1. The salary is up to Tobin. It probably will be $25,000 and liberal, but limited expenses. Beck's amendment does not even require that the new sub-dictator shall be a member of the union.

If Tobin pulls a surprise and names somebody else, Beck can pull out of the union about 250,000 subjects under his reign in 11 western states. In that case, the Taft-Hartley law would protect him by forbidding the old king to declare a boycott and a secondary picket line. That, however, is not even a speculative possibility in the plans of the anti-Beck forces. They are desperate men. If Beck becomes boss, they are doomed, and many of them deserve well for their long labors.

Accordingly, they are making their plans to pull out many locals in San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York, Philadelphia and Boston and to join with an independent Chicago union in a convention to organize a new rival international union. In that case, these seceding unions will demand that the National Labor Relations Board under the Taft-Hartley law protect them and all employers having contracts with them and all clients of those trucking firms from any reprisals by the old king and Beck.

Challenge To Love

By ETHEL MARVEL

XXVI
It was still early when Cam crept out of bed and showered and pinned up her pale hair into an informal Psyche knot. She slid into a simple aqua dress and tugged its waistline drawingstring tight. There was still time for her to get out into the yard for a while before breakfast would be ready. The thought of the crisp October morning, after the long lethargy in which she had lain out the night, was like a tonic, bitter to the taste yet healing.

As she opened the front door the dew still lay frosty over the leaf-dotted lawn, weaving its own transient lacelike mysteries. The early light sifting down through the elms was like a sari of sheerest gilt mesh. She took two steps across the veranda—and paused with a sudden soft gasp as panic-frightened as the swish of meadowgrass from which winging wings have whirled. One hand flew to her throat.

Joel stood up slowly, unfolding from his seat on the top step. The clothes he had worn were the same he had worn last night, with a few new creases added; mute evidence that he had not yet been to bed. His hair was a rumpled mass which gave him the look of an untidy small boy.

"Cam?" He spoke her name slowly, as if he half expected her to disappear at even so slight a sound as he had made.

"If you'd waited, Joel. If you'd let me explain."

"I must have been crazy. It was jealousy, I guess. Blind jealousy because another guy could give you so much. Here am I, alive and on top of the green earth, and I'm not able to offer you anything. I've been in love with you so long! You didn't know that, but—"

"I wanted you to be in love with me," Cam came closer, looking up into the blue of his eyes. "I prayed that you'd love me. And when you didn't, or I couldn't believe that you did—"

"I loved you. I loved you so much that I had to keep away—or tell you about it. And I was afraid to do that. Afraid you might care about me the way I knew I cared about you."

Cam smiled tremulously. "Would that have been so terrible?" "Yes," The word seemed to wrench itself from him. "If you'd only said the word, Cammie. I was so sure for you that I'd have done anything. I'd have chucked my pre-med course and turned to something two could live on quick. That's how much I wanted you."

They were still in a world of their own, considerably later, when the first shades in President Balfour's house across the street were rolled back to herald the advent of morning. Within the Dean's own residence, a clatter of breakfast silver and a hum of voices crept out to penetrate their sweet preoccupation. Joel drew back from her unwillingly and stood before her, grinning down with a triumphant light shining like a beacon torch behind his blue eyes.

"How's his Nibs apt to be at breakfast? Cheerful?" "Absent-minded," answered Cam. "Thinking about some list or other and sprinkling sugar on his eggs and salt in his coffee."

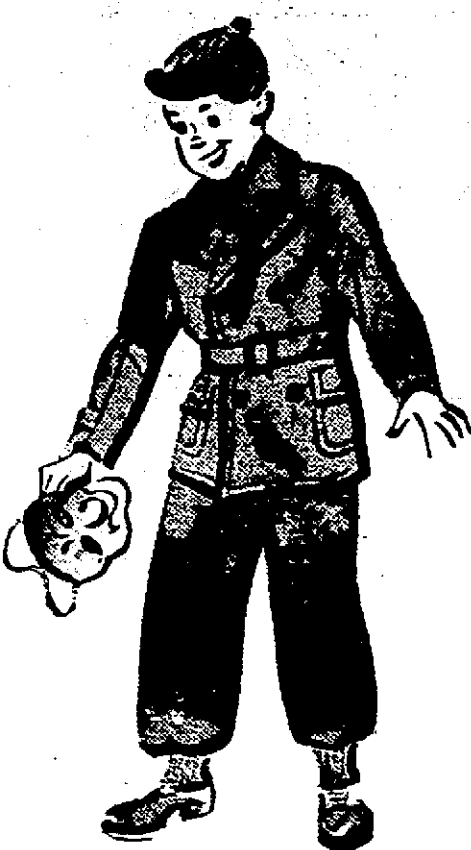

"He'll have to take his mind off those lists for long enough to make some announcement about whether or not he can stand the idea of me for a son-in-law. Come on, let's face him!"

SOMEWHAT to Cam's surprise, she found both her father and Maurine already seated at the table. Time had indeed flashed past while she was out on the veranda. Dean Austin looked up as if he were only mildly surprised to encounter a young man who looked as if he had reappeared at breakfast. But Maurine, when she recognized that it was Joel and had taken in the detail of how he held Cam's hand tight in his own, dropped her grapefruit spoon with a clatter and sat staring at them.

Swiftly and proudly, Joel explained what he had come to say; and Cam, forgetting Maurine for the moment, watched her father's face for the first hint of his reaction to their news.

The Dean made no direct answer when Joel was finished, but stared upward at his caller through those omnipresent bifocals for a long moment. Then he said, in a friendly voice, "Like grapefruit, Cam? Orange juice in the ice box, if you don't find a chair, Cammie."

And so began the happiest day Cam could remember.

He will report at Fort Knox, Ky., Dec. 2 for a three-week refresher course, after which he will be assigned to the east coast, for eventual service in Europe, presumably Germany.

Funeral Ship Docks at Brooklyn's Army Base

New York, Nov. 26—Clergymen of three faiths led memorial services today for 4,212 dead of World War II as the Army transport Robert F. Burns docked at the Brooklyn Army base with the bodies of the men who fell fighting in Europe.

Some 600 relatives of the dead lined the pier and gazed down at the flag-draped coffins in the open hold of the transport.

The Burns is the third vessel to arrive here with war dead since the Army began the task of bringing back bodies whose return was requested by their next of kin.

Most of the dead are from Henri Chappelle cemetery, near Eupen, Belgium, and the cemetery at St. Laurent-Sur-Mer in Normandy.

Suspend Gambling Fine on Pinochle Players

Los Angeles, Nov. 26—(AP)—Three elderly men who for six years have been playing pinochle in the sun in Hollenbeck park were hauled into Municipal court by the law on gambling charges.

"We played a nickel for 300 points," said Noah Simon, 88, speaking also for Abe Levin, 76, and Human Mittelman, 65. "Judge, you can take my word for it, in the pot was only 20 cents." The trio pleaded guilty.

"This," said Judge Louis K. Kaufman, "is the most ridiculous charge I have ever had brought into court. The sentence, $10 fine—suspended."

Opposition Grows to Partition of Palestine

New York, Nov. 26—(AP)—Chances for approval of the proposed partition of Palestine received a setback today when two more countries in the United Nations assembly joined the opposition to the plan. The proposal was shown one short of the necessary two-thirds majority on the basis of a committee "straw-vote" test yesterday.

legislation appropriating the funds will have to be cleared from Taber's committee.

Taber said he did not discuss the foreign affairs committee's action with the president. The White House said Mr. Truman requested the conference with the New Yorker.

Taber said his committee has a rather heavy schedule the first three days of next week on regular appropriation bills. He added that even after that the committee will have to have "some justifications" from the administration for the foreign expenditure before it can act. Those justifications, he said, have been asked for, "but have not been received."

Vote on Slash Close

The New Yorker said he was not taking a position himself on the $597,000,000 authorization at this time.

The foreign affairs committee's vote to cut down the size of European aid was reported to have been by a 10-9 vote. The vote on $60,000,000 for China was not reported.

The two big changes put the total okayed by the house group at $549,000,000 and sent State department officials out of the committee room dejectedly shaking their heads. The action is not final until the committee formally approves a bill, but it hopes to do that next Monday.

The senate, plugged steadily along meanwhile toward approval of a bill containing nothing for China and the full $597,000,000 President Truman recommended for the three European nations.

Taft Supports Aid Bill

Senator Taft, (R-Ohio), chairman of the Republican policy committee in the senate, sank the last traces of effective opposition. He told a reporter he would vote for the aid bill.

"We must do something now to help France, Italy and Austria," he said, "because this is a real emergency."

But the Ohio senator, who has called the $597,000,000 amount "too high," made it plain that he is reserving his decision on the long-range Marshall plan for European economic recovery. President Truman is expected to submit this plan in detail within the next few days.

GOP Policy Discussed

Secretary of State Marshall has estimated it will cost between $16,000,000,000 and $20,000,000,000 over the next four years. Sixteen western European countries would take part in the self-help recovery drive, to follow the stop-gap assistance for France, Italy and Austria.

Republican policy on the whole aid problem will be gone over at a meeting of the house GOP steering committee called by Speaker Martin for Monday.

It was Rep. Chipfield (R-Ill.) who sponsored the amendment in the house committee to trim $108,000,000 from emergency aid for Europe. Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) told reporters a majority of the committee decided differing estimates of what is needed and what can be supplied allowed room for a cut.

Czechs Not Communies, Peoria Group Hears

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 26—(AP)—Barney B. Matlick, Peoria civic worker and a native of Czechoslovakia, told a Peoria church audience last night the Czechs "are not Communists and never will be."

Matlick, who spent last summer in Czechoslovakia, said only 15 per cent of the Czechoslovakian people are Communists. "Although the country is governed by the so-called National Front, with Communists holding most of the important positions and therefore most of the power."

"There are no Russian troops in the country except in Carlsbad, where they are guarding the only uranium source in Europe," he declared.

Meaning of Strike

to its huge, two-story high newsroom.

They copy the stories on ordinary letter-size sheets on smooth white paper ruled to one or two columns wide.

Make-up editors paste the news and ads on large sheets of white cardboard. Each page prepared in this manner is photographed on a metal engraving plate.

From this point, the publishing process is the same as before the strike. Each photo-engraved page is stereotyped, the curved plates are locked on rotary presses, and the newspaper is "ready to roll."

The 1,500 printers are the only employees on strike following a breakdown in contract negotiations. The publishers continue unhampered at the other steps of newspaper production as the photo-engravers, pressmen and mailers belonging to other unions are not on strike.

Girls Do Crucial Work

So the crucial job is being done by the girl typists.

They have to copy each story twice. The first time the right hand margin comes out uneven.

But after each line the typist notes the exact number of spaces the line has fallen short of the right hand margin. She never extends a line beyond the desired length.

In copying the story a second time she leaves enough blank spaces in each line to make the lines come out even. In printers' language, they "justify."

Special electric justifying typewriters are being used by some of the six newspapers. They make the re-type job easier but they do not justify automatically. The operator still must know how many extra spaces each line needs and for this reason the material must be pre-typed.

Have Special Type Face

The Tribune has several of the machines which have a litho-book type face giving a striking appearance somewhat resembling regular linotype production.

The Tribune also has a number of ordinary typewriters to which a justifying attachment has been added. They are not electrically powered, however. The chief advantage of electric typewriters is that they leave an even impression on the paper.

The justifying typewriter was extensively used during the war for service newspapers and pamphlets. "Though somewhat slower than the standard printing process," The Tribune said today, "it produces copy of comparable legibility, and in some instances has been found to be considerably cheaper than linotype printing."

Meanwhile as striking printers picketed Chicago's six major daily newspapers, new wage demands were served on eight smaller publications, two of which indicated they would grant the wage increases.

Pickets Appear Early

Pickets appeared early today at plants of all six big papers. However, there were no disturbances and no reports of other newspaper local situation.

1) Material and labor scarcity.

2) Extraordinary demands for expansion of utility facilities.

3) Lack of necessary repairs to buildings.

4) Street department and public properties machinery and equipment has worn out or is obsolete, and some has been used so long it is dangerous, both to users and general public.

5) Increased demand for services in urban population and commercial building and housing.

6) Cost of labor, supplies and materials is up 25 to 60 per cent over pre-war estimates.

7) Higher living costs have and will continue to require salary increases for all city employees.

Continue IC Discussion

In addition to this action, the council, after a lengthy debate on a proposal by the Illinois Central railroad to install flasher signals at the Seventh street crossing, meanwhile cutting the hours of the crossing guard from 10 to eight daily, agreed to vote next week on the matter after additional investigation by Commissioner Forrest Shawyer.

Shawyer will study the IC schedules to determine if extensive switching goes on during the night in the west end, and will present his finding next week.

Valle Opposes Bells

This action came after Commissioner Joe E. Valle raised opposition to the road's plan to install blinkers at the crossing which would operate while the watchman was off duty. He said he thought the road should have two watchmen there, and objected to the noise of the signal bells, saying they would bother residents of the neighborhood.

Hofmann also revealed that the council had not approved circulation of merchandise boards during the holiday season here in answer to rumors reported by Commissioner George Lindquist.

Bills totaling $5,470.16 were approved. The city also will sign an agreement soon under which the city's garbage will be turned over to James S. McNeil, 711 First street, for use on his farm six miles east of Dixon.

ship which went aground Monday night remained on the beach.

A radio message from Capt. Ben Aspin, master of the steamship Denali, first vessel to reach the wreck, said he could hardly see "how it would be possible for any living person to survive." The Clarksdale Victory had been broken in two at the number three hatch, and no part of the bridge, amidships or aft end, could be seen. His eight-man rescue crew was unable to reach the beach.

Searching planes yesterday reported they saw the men below seize the medical supplies dropped and run into nearby woods, as though taking them to other injured survivors.

Proposed Boost in Express Rates Off

Chicago, Nov. 26—(AP)—The Illinois Commerce commission today suspended until April 1, 1948 proposed increases filed by the Railway Express agency, Inc., ranging from 17 to 54 per cent, in rates for express shipments between points in Illinois.

John D. Biggs, commission chairman, said the proposed increases would have depended upon the distance express was carried. The new rates would have cost Illinois shippers to points within the state thousands of dollars had they been permitted to become effective Dec. 1, 1947, as requested by the Railway Express agency, Inc., Biggs said.

He said the increases petitioned for were considerably higher than those for long-haul traffic. The commission set the petition for hearing Jan. 28, 1948 at Chicago.

Stockyards Strike at E. St. Louis Unended

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 26—(AP)—There was no sign of a settlement today in a walkout of handlers that has tied up operations at nearby National Stockyards, and an embargo has been declared on all shipments of livestock.

Stockyard officials estimated nearly 40,000 head of livestock were in the pens waiting to be weighed. The handlers agreed to feed and water the animals during the stoppage.

Some 400 members of the AFL Livestock Handlers' Union, local 225, charging undue delays in contract negotiations walked off the job Monday. They are seeking a wage increase of 18 cents an hour over a wage scale ranging from 91 cents to $1.25 an hour. Their contract expired Nov. 2.

A meeting with federal conciliators yesterday was unsuccessful. The Producers' Livestock Commission Association asked Gov. Dwight Green of Illinois to use every effort "to end this unauthorized work stoppage, which has resulted in an intolerable situation."

The large Armour packing plant reported no slaughtering will be conducted today, and another large plant, Hunter Packing Company, was processing only hogs. Swift & Company reported a limited supply of cattle on hand.

Heart Disease Deaths Up 10 Per cent in State

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 26—(AP)—Illinois deaths from heart disease in the first eight months of 1947 were up 10 per cent over the corresponding period last year, the state health department said today.

Heart ailments claimed 23,384 lives, or 2,138 more than in the first two thirds of 1946. This disease accounted for 37 per cent of the state's 62,785 deaths from all causes, which rose 3,513.

Dr. Roland R. Cross, health director, attributed the jump in the heart disease toll to the gradually increasing proportion of the state's population in older age brackets.

Other diseases responsible for the higher overall mortality in the Jan. 1 to Aug. 31 span included cancer with 8,913 deaths, up 432 over the 1946 period; cerebral hemorrhage with 5,042 deaths, up 320; and pneumonia and influenza, 2,361, up 236.

Chicago and Northern Illinois... Printing Center of the World

"Working on big printing presses has been my job for 20 years. I help print the millions of books, magazines and catalogs that publishers and mail order houses send every year to readers all over the world. In my lifetime I've seen this area take the lead in printing. The concentration of skilled labor and equipment in the graphic arts industries of this region is today unequalled anywhere in the world."

"Printing is my business, and I'm glad I live and work where opportunities in my line, and many others, are greatest."

This pressman* is one of 70,000 skilled craftsmen who work in the tremendous printing industry in this area. The graphic arts group in this area is the most mechanically complete and widely diversified in the United States. It ranks first in number of employees, wages paid, number of establishments, and is highest in economic value. Located here are the three largest commercial printing plants in the world, as well as hundreds of smaller printing specialists with fine skills and equipment to meet every conceivable requirement as to artistry, economy, and flexibility of processes.

Everything from mail order catalogs to technical books is run off in the 3,100 printing plants in this region. Annually they produce a greater volume than any comparable area in the world. And today, to meet the ever-increasing needs of industries here, Northern Illinois is rapidly expanding in every field of commercial printing.

The postal zoning laws for second-class mailings passed in 1918 made Northern Illinois the most economical and strategic location for the printing of national publications. Within a radius of 500 miles are more than a third of the nation's readers and buyers and 39 per cent of the nation's manufacturing concerns. Magazines and catalogs, as well as products from manufacturers in this area, reach their destinations quickly and on time because of the unexcelled shipping facilities of Northern Illinois... the greatest transportation center in the world.

To industries seeking locations, skilled workers and strategic location are only two of the many advantages offered by the Northern Illinois territory. As an aid to those considering relocation, our Territorial Information Department will supply factual data concerning this area and pertinent to your business. This department will supply studies in as great detail as is required, confidentially and without charge.

FINAL ESTIMATE OF COST OF COUNTY AID BRIDGE AT LEONARD'S CORNER, ONE MILE NORTH AND 30 RODS EAST OF HALLIGAN'S CORNER IN MARION TOWNSHIP IN LEE COUNTY. TO THE HONORABLE CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE LEE COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Gentlemen:

The final estimate of cost of the bridge above mentioned wherein the County Board granted aid on the 10th day of September, 1947 in the amount of $1,475.00 the total cost of said work at that time being estimated at $2,950.00 is hereby respectively submitted.

The bridge was built by Day Labor, Charles McCoy, commissioner of highways superintending the work, Sidney Heagy doing the driving of the piles including the necessary excavation and back fill for the structure. There was:

4062 board feet of creosote lumber $617.42
Drayage 100.00
Federal freight tax 3.00

Total $720.42

4 1/2 hours Crane rental, excavation and backfill (S. Heagy) $ 475.00
Driving 189 1/2 ft. of piling at $1.50 per ft. 284.25

Furnishing 410 lineal ft. of creosote piling 410.00
Hardware, bolts, rods, nails, etc. 28.36

Labor 352.00
Use of Marion Twp. truck, 36 hours @ $1.50 54.00

Total cost of work $2,354.03
Lee County's portion $1,177.02

Marion Township's portion 1,177.01

The payment for said bridge will be made as follows: Marion Township pays for the hardware, bolts, rods, nails, etc., in the amount of $28.36, pays all labor in the amount of $352.00, pays $54.00 for use of truck, pays Sidney Heagy $475.00 for crane rental, pays Sidney Heagy $237.65 for driving piles.

Lee County will pay Sidney Heagy on County Aid, an order in the amount of $46.60 for balance of driving piles, will pay for the plank, drayage and Federal Tax in the amount of $720.42 and the County Aid Fund will pay County Highway $410.00 for creosote piling, making a total of $1,177.02.

The superstructure of the bridge was 10 inch I-beams which were removed from the bridge south of Walton and were paid for with County Aid Funds whereby Marion Township and Lee County divided the cost.

And I would respectfully recommend that an order be drawn on the County Aid Fund Building Bridges in favor of the County Highway Fund in the amount of $410.00 for materials which were paid for out of County Highways Funds and used in connection with County Aid Building Bridges.

Respectfully submitted,
FRED W. LEAKE,
County Superintendent of Highways

A motion was made by Supervisor Finn, seconded by Supervisor Hess that the report and recommendation be concurred in by the Board. Carried.

The Clerk read the following request and recommendation of Fred W. Leake, County Superintendent of Highways and the members of the Road and Bridge Committee:

TO THE HONORABLE CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE LEE COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Gentlemen:
On the 13th day of September, 1947, a trucking concern from Chillicothe, Illinois, who were delivering cement blocks to the George Gonigam farm in Hamilton Township, attempted to cross a bridge over the Bass Ditch, approximately three-fourths of a mile south of the Northeast Corner of Section 27 in Hamilton Township with a tractor, trailer and load of cement blocks, which I understand weighed approximately twenty-two (22) tons.

This particular bridge had been posted as to weight limit by William C. Hardesty, commissioner of highways of Hamilton Township with a six (6) ton load limit and these weight limit signs had been placed previous and were erected at the time of said crossing. The bridge structure, which spanned the ditch, is a light pony truss and the bridge failed due to the excessive load.

I was called to the location of the bridge and from my observation the bridge failed where the top cord was connected to the inclined member at the Northeast corner of the bridge which let the lower cord down on the east side of the structure. The inclined members and top and lower cord were intact on the west side of the bridge. This structure had a plank floor which was treated with a plastic top.

I called the Road and Bridge Committee the following day after my inspection and we went to the side of the bridge. In view of the fact that Hamilton Township would be entitled to County Aid on this structure if a new structure were to be built at the location, the old bridge structure being too short to span the Bass Ditch at this location, I estimated that a new bridge, including sub-structure and superstructure would cost at least $20,000.00.

When the County Farm road was improved with Motor Fuel Tax a new bridge was built over the Three Mile Branch in Section 15 of South Dixon Township and the old structure was removed and has been at the County Highway Shop for the past five or six years.

The Road and Bridge Committee decided to give Hamilton Township this bridge, the I-Bears, hand rail, sway braces, tie rods and so fourth, in fact, the superstructure with the exception of the plank flooring with the understanding that the highway commissioner haul the same from the county shop, erect and place the same on the present substructure, paint it, furnish the floor for the same and not make application to the County Board for County Aid.

We trust that the County Board will approve of our actions.

Respectfully,
FRED W. LEAKE,
Co. Supt. of Hwy.

THE ROAD AND BRIDGE COMMITTEE
MILTON G. VAUPEL, Chairman
J. W. CORTRIGHT
C. J. KUEBEL
F. C. SPROUL
W. M. J. KRANOV

The Road and Bridge Committee respectfully recommend that a transfer of $650.00 be made from County Aid Building Bridges to the County Highway Fund to cover the cost of the steel in the superstructure for this bridge.

A motion was made by Supervisor Mau, seconded by Supervisor Hemenway, that the request and recommendation be concurred in by the Board. Carried.

A motion was made by Supervisor Mau, seconded by Supervisor Higby that the Board adjourn until 2:00 p. m. Carried.

At the hour of 2:00 p. m. in the Afternoon, the Board of Supervisors of Lee County reconvened, pursuant to adjournment, Present same as at the morning session including Supervisors Anderson and Cortright and minus Supervisors Hess and Leon W. Miller.

 Chairman

STERLING D. SCHROCK

County Clerk & Ex-Officio Clerk
 Of the Board of Supervisors

(SEAL)

A motion was made by Supervisor Mau, seconded by Supervisor Webber that the Appropriation Ordinance and Levies as prepared and read be adopted in its entirety. Said motion coming on for a roll call vote the Clerk proceeded to call the roll with the result as follows:

Those voting Aye: Supervisors Barnes, Klingebiel, Vaupel, Archer, Higby, T. J. Miller, Prescott, Anderson, Mau, Kranov, Baylor, Finn, Faivre, Emmitt, Hey, Sandrock, Cortright, Kuebel, Webber, Risetter and Case: 21.

Those voting Nay: None.

Thereupon the Chairman declared said motion unanimously carried.

The Clerk read the following letters to the Board:

Mrs. Marion Thomas, R. N.

Dixon Public Hospital Annex

Dixon, Illinois.

Dear Mrs. Thomas:

As you no doubt know, the Rockford Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium has for the past two years had a building program. In 1945 a bond issue was voted in the City of Rockford for $450,000. Approximately $65,000 of this amount has been spent leaving about $385,000. In addition to this, some money which the Sanitarium has had on hand, approximately $120,000, has already been spent towards improvement of the institution.

Because of the increase in cost of building, both in labor and material, we find ourselves in the position of being unable to complete our building because of the lack of funds, although at the time the bond issue was drawn we could easily have completed the whole project if we had been able to build at that time. At this time, however, due to these increases in costs, we need approximately $390,000 to complete our building. This would include the building of one new building and the remodeling of another. Our building program contemplates continued care of the surrounding counties on a daily per capita basis.

The State of Illinois has been awarded about $2,700,000 by the federal government for grants-in-aid for construction of hospitals and sanitariums. We have applied to the State Health Department, Dr. Roland Cross, Director, for a portion of these funds to complete our building project. If we cannot find sufficient funds to complete the buildings under our present plans, it may be necessary to reduce the size of the project. We would hate to do this, for it would mean that we would then only be able to care for Winnebago County patients and would inconvenience our surrounding counties.

I am, therefore, writing to you in the hope that you will use your influence from your county level in having these funds allocated to us so that we may go ahead with our construction program at an early date. We suggest that you might contact your legislators or supervisors or anyone else who might be influential. I might add that Miss Stomack of Ogle County has already written to the Department about this matter.

Yours very truly,
 W. J. BRYAN, M. D.
 Superintendent.

Mrs. Marion Thomas, R. N.

Dixon Public Hospital Annex

Dixon, Illinois

Dear Mrs. Thomas:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation in regard to the building fund, if it meets with your approval and the approval of your board, we would like to urge you to contact members of your board of supervisors and have them pass a resolution approving our building program and urging the state to participate in this program to the extent of allowing state funds to be granted for this project.

You will note in this letter that I mention state funds rather than federal funds. It has come to our attention since I last wrote you that all federal funds have been used and some of the state fund is still available.

Any other organization, either official or voluntary, such as your county tuberculosis association or sanitarium board, might also write such letters urging that these improvements be made with state funds. Such letters should be directed to Mr. George K. Hendricks, Acting Chief, Division of Hospital Construction and Service, Department of Public Health, Springfield, Illinois. We would also appreciate having a copy for our files.

Thanking you, I remain,

Very truly yours
 W. J. BRYAN, M. D.
 Superintendent.

Mr. Henry Knetsch, president of the Tuberculosis Sanitarium Board spoke before the board relative to the letters which had been read and suggested that the matter be referred to a committee of the Board and they to make some sort of a recommendation at the next meeting. Some discussion followed.

A motion was made by Supervisor Case, seconded by Supervisor Sandrock that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee and they to bring in a recommendation at the next meeting of the Board. Carried.

The following letter was read to the Board:

Elmer J. Miller, Chairman,
 Lee County Board of Supervisors
 Franklin Grove, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Miller:

I know that you have received, through our regular distribution, a copy of Official Bulletin No. 123, relating to the payment procedure for care of Old Age Pension and Blind Assistance recipients in county nursing homes. I am sending you an extra copy of this bulletin with the thought that as Chairman of the County Board you may want to provide it for the use of the person designated by the board to act as payee.

I have instructed Mrs. Marian Braden, Lee County Superintendent of Public Assistance, to communicate with you and to make arrangements for putting the new procedure into operation effective with November care.

The Commission has had excellent co-operation and assistance from you and members of the County Home Committee in working out the many mutual problems of the county nursing home program. It has seemed, from discussions of our staff with county home committees throughout the State, that this change in the payment procedure will simplify the financial arrangements for Old Age Pension and Blind Assistance recipients who receive care in county homes. I sincerely hope this objective is effected by the new plan.

Very truly yours
 RAYMOND M. HILLIARD,
 Executive Secretary

A motion was made by Supervisor Kranov, seconded by Supervisor Higby that the County Infirmary Committee be given power to act in the matter. Carried.

The following is a resolution as prepared by the Judiciary Committee:

The Ever Ready Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church, monthly meeting which was scheduled for Nov. 28 has been postponed until Dec. 5.

Dorothy Jane Durkes passed away at the home of her mother Sunday evening Nov. 16, 1947.

She was the eldest child of Stelzer A. and Elizabeth Durkes and was born at Erie, Illinois, January 1st, 1897.

Her education was acquired in the Franklin schools where she was graduated with the class of 1915. She attended Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, finishing in 1919. Later she had a year of post-graduate work at the University of Illinois.

She spent a number of years teaching at Sac City, Iowa; Lee Center and Tiskilwa, Illinois; and one year at Spearfish, South Dakota. For the last 18 years she has been employed in the Franklin Grove bank where she has been assistant cashier for several years.

Early in life she became a member of the Methodist church. Always a loyal member she has served as a Sunday school teacher and at the time of her death she was a member of the official board being chairman of the Finance committee and was president of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

She was a member of Garnet chapter of the Eastern Star and of the Past Matron's club having served two terms as matron.

An honor she greatly appreciated was being elected a director of the Franklin Grove library.

Dorothy was preceded in death

 Hollywood (AP)—Movie locations in Arizona and Nevada may come to an end unless studios agree to sign waivers for workmen's compensation.

The two states are reportedly asking studios to assume compensation risks. This has followed a recent incident in which a film worker on location suffered a broken back and was placed on state aid.

Gene Autry productions ran up against this problem and location plans for the company's next film have been switched from Arizona to Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif.

Jimmy Durante describes his meeting with President Truman as "the greatest thrill of my life." Jimmy, who was entertaining at the press photographers' dinner, was meeting Mr. Truman with the other movie players.

"My name's Jimmy Durante," the comic said.
 "You mean JIMMY DURANTE—in person?" said the president, imitating Jimmy's radio billing.

The "Jolson Story" sequel is reported dead. Columbia and A.I. couldn't come to terms and Jolson has told friends he "can't be lucky twice" in having a biographical hit. Also, there is some doubt about whether Larry Parks could be obtained for the new film.

Albert Dekker is planning to run for mayor of Los Angeles next year. One of Hollywood's busiest actors (he's now in "Lulu Belle"), he has been contemplating a return to politics. He served a term in the California legislature.

Don Ameche flew to Chicago on a hunt for a new coach for his Los Angeles Rams pro football team. He'll be back for the annual Thanksgiving Day all-star broadcast on CBS. This year's will feature Jack Benny, Red Skelton, Alvin Karpis, and Larry Parks and others.

Geographical note: "Pittsburgh Escapade," starring Melvyn Douglas and Barbara Bel Geddes, is now titled "Baltimore Escapade." Reason: A beach scene was needed. Pat Knight flew in on TWA to help silence rumors of a split with Cornel Wilde.

Unitarian Group Joins Religious Class Fight
 Washington, Nov. 25—(AP)—Mrs. Vashli McCollum, seeking to outlaw religious education in the Champaign, Ill., public schools, had the support of the American Unitarian association today in her forth-coming presentation of the case to the U. S. Supreme court.

The association filed a brief with the court yesterday, contending that the religious education program violates the principal of separation of church and state.

As practiced in Champaign, the association said that the program offered Mrs. McCollum's son, James, a choice between attending religious education classes one half hour a week or pursuing his regular studies during that period.

"We think he is thereby constrained by public authorities to attend the class in religious education," the association's brief said.

The case, appealed from the Illinois Supreme court, which upheld the schools, is scheduled to be submitted to the U. S. court next month.

 Chicago, Nov. 25—(AP)—George A. Green, 21, convicted of two charges of crimes against small girls, in an Evanston theater, was sentenced yesterday to one to 20 years imprisonment on each, the sentences to run concurrently.

Contempt Action Fails Against Club Employees
 Ottawa, Ill., Nov. 25—(AP)—Contempt of court citations against two employees of the Streator Paddock club for refusing to testify before a grand jury were dismissed in Circuit court yesterday on grounds the men were within their rights.

At a hearing on the citations, Nov. 15, Philip Glasco and John Tevel said they had refused to testify before the grand jury on grounds they might incriminate themselves, but State's Attorney Charles Helfrich contended they refused to give testimony that might incriminate some other persons.

In dismissing the citations, Judge Roy Wilhelm ruled Glasco and Tevel could refuse to answer questions which might conceivably form a link in a chain of circumstances which would incriminate themselves.

They had been subpoenaed to appear before a grand jury which investigated alleged commercial gambling in LaSalle county.

Stassen Offers Eight Point Program to U. S.

Milwaukee, Nov. 25—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen, formally opening his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination last night, advanced an eight-point domestic and international program to overcome what he termed "boom or bust tendencies."

The former Minnesota governor, in a nationwide broadcast (ABC) from the City auditorium, told the 4,500 persons at the political rally that in the succeeding months he planned to "spell out the details" of the plan and hoped his proposals would stimulate others to offer "additional facts and alternative proposals."

"We might find together the best program that America can follow and that our Republican party can present," Stassen told the rally, which was sponsored by the Republican organization of Wisconsin and the Stassen for President Volunteers of Wisconsin.

Housing and what he termed

"lack of adequate health service" were ranked top priority by Stassen in his program.

Fire losses in the United States in 1946 exceeded by almost 25 percent the damage done by the German incendiary blitz on England in 1940-41.

Youth to Stand Trial on Murder Charge

Los Angeles, Nov. 25—(AP)—Gerald L. Richards, 19, of Danville, Ill., was ordered yesterday to stand trial on charges of murdering a 52-year-old tailor whom officers said the youth admitted shooting.

At the time of Richards' arrest Nov. 10, following a shooting episode in the Biltmore hotel, Det. Lieut. Bob Lohman quoted Richards as saying he shot Charles Vuykov because the tailor "had made obscene proposals to him."

The youth, who also faces a charge of attempted murder in the shooting of Andrew Martin, the assistant hotel manager, will be arraigned Dec. 10 on the murder charge.
